

The Confessions of a Free Christian

What you are about to do is going to bring change to your circumstances and your life forever. It is never a waste of time to speak the Word of God over your circumstances. Smith Wigglesworth once said “I can’t understand God by feelings. I can’t understand Jesus Christ by feelings. I understand God by what the Word says about Him. He is everything the Word says He is. Get to know the Lord through the Word.”

We are training ourselves to speak the Word of God and to stand on God’s Word. Jesus has already paid the price for you to be completely free from all sin. In God’s eyes you already have complete victory over every area of weakness that you are struggling with. We are not moving God with our confessions, we are however moving ourselves to the position of peace that Christ has already given to us. So we confess to change what we believe and to acknowledge in our hearts that the scripture is truth and everything else is a lie.

As you speak these following confessions don’t be shy, speak boldly and out loud. Get boisterous and let your outward man hear what your inner man is saying, let your emotions learn who is in charge and make sure the devil hears you speak the truth of God’s Word out of your mouth.

Speak every word deliberately and with confidence.

Lord your Word says “whatever things I desire, when I pray, if I believe that I receive them then I will have them. (Mark11:24)

I believe that as your child that there is nothing that is impossible for me. (Mark17:20)
I have a Father who loves me and who cares about my every need.

Father, thank you for caring about these needs that I am facing in my life. I appreciate that you are willing to take these cares from me. I am so blessed to have a Father who cares about what I am going through. I am blessed that I can give every care to you.

I stand on your Word today as my source of strength and direction. I “trust in You with all my heart” and “I refuse to lean on my own understanding” and I will “acknowledge You in all my ways.” (Proverbs 3:5-6)

I refuse to accept any thoughts or feelings that do not line up with the Word of God. I refuse to listen to my emotions and in Jesus name I call myself peaceful.

I thank you Father that you love me and that your heart is for me and not against me. I believe that your thoughts toward me are of peace and not of evil, and that You give me a future of hope and strength. When I call on You I know that You will listen and when I seek You I will find you. (Jeremiah 29:11-14)

Father I thank you that the only response I will ever receive from you is love. I am so grateful that you are for me and not against me.

I thank you that I have been set free from all my past hurts and all of my past mistakes. I refuse to allow my past to hinder my future anymore. I will never allow my past to rule over me again.

I boldly declare from the Word of God that I am completely free from all sins. I have been set free at the Cross of Calvary and I do not have to sin anymore. Sin no longer has dominion over me. I am a child of God and sin has already been defeated.

I take full responsibility for my decisions to play with sin and my weaknesses. I do not have to sin or give into my weaknesses and Father I thank you that you have forgiven me of all of my past mistakes.

I take hold of my mind and in Jesus name I thank you that I have the mind of Christ. I take control of my thoughts and declare that my mind is strong toward God and toward purity.

I control my thoughts, they do not control me. I tell my mind what to think and not the other way around. Today I will think on things that are true and noble and just. Today I will think on things that are lovely and things that are of good report. Today I will think of things that have virtue and that are praiseworthy. My mind will dwell on things that are holy and pure. (Philippians 4:8-9)

Father, I thank you that I am your child and you have given to me your nature on the inside of me. I have a nature of purity and holiness. I am made to enjoy purity and I am made to enjoy holiness. I am free from my past life and every sin of the past has been nailed to the Cross.

I decree by the Word of God that I have power over all devils. I command every lying spirit of sin to GO FROM ME, RIGHT NOW in the name of Jesus. You have no power over me anymore in Jesus name.

I thank you Father that your angels surround me and my household in Jesus name. I stand on the Word of God that I am free because of your love.

Father I thank you that you have accepted me as your child and today I am well able to walk into holiness and purity. Today, you help separate me from every profane thing. I am separated unto you wholly. I am free from the world and am complete in my Father.

Through my mind, body, and spirit I am consecrated unto the Lord of Hosts. I am found preserved complete and whole, lacking nothing unto the Lord. Thank you that you have given me all power over sin and over the devil.
