Hidden Miracle

I'd like to take a closer look at something important and amazing with you. There is a hidden miracle in scripture that alluded me for years until I began to discover the picture of my inner man. The message of the inner man is the understanding that God created an entirely new man within my outward man. One of the many verses describing our inner man is Ephesians 4:24, "and that you put on the new man which was created according to God, in true righteousness and holiness."

The moment of your salvation was a fantastic moment where a new creation that wasn't there before came into existence. Instantly, you went from darkness to light and from sin to true righteousness. It was the first moment you truly experienced real love and saw light; you had been born again. Also, something else was created in that moment; your inner man was also brought to life.

The inner man is now birthed by the Heavenly Father Himself, making you a child of God. Now, as His child, you have full access to all of who God is through the new inner man. With this understanding, I was able to see a real miracle in scripture that was previously hidden from my understanding. It's where Jesus speaks to his disciples in John 14:25-26, "These things I have spoken to you while being present with you. But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all things that I said to you."

When Jesus says the Father will send the Holy Spirit, it implies that He is coming in a new way; at least, that's how I interpreted it. However, the Holy Spirit is God, which means He never changes (Malachi 3:6), so it is impossible for Him to change. We also know that His being sent by the Father cannot mean He wasn't here before because, from our beginning, the Holy Spirit was an integral part of our creation. He hovered over the waters (Genesis 1:2), He split the Red Sea (Exodus 14:21-29), He raised the dead (2 Kings 4:32-35), and He prophesied through men (1 Samuel 10:6-10). It was not new for the Holy Spirit to be here because He's always been here.

What Jesus said specifically was that the Holy Spirit was able to come as a Teacher. Now, in these words of Jesus is a hidden miracle that affects you and me as believers. Suddenly, after all humanity's generations, the Holy Spirit could be our Teacher; why not before? Jesus tells the disciples that as their Teacher, He will be able to bring to remembrance what they learned from walking with Him. Think of all the time they spent with Jesus over three and one-half years, eating every meal, sleeping in the same locations, and spending thousands of hours walking from place to place.

All of that time, having Jesus personally teach them the wisdom and mysteries of Heaven, they still couldn't comprehend the truth. They needed another teacher to explain to them what Jesus was really sharing. They had the Word of God Himself personally teaching them the Word of God, and they still couldn't fully comprehend what He shared. This is when I saw the miracle: if the Holy Spirit cannot change, but now suddenly He could be their Teacher, then something in them must have changed. Something changed so much in them that now they can receive the truth and mysteries of Heaven and comprehend it. Look what it reads in John 14:18-20, "I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you. 'A little while longer and the world will see Me no more, but you will see Me. Because I live, you will live also. At that day you will know that I am in My Father, and you in Me, and I in you.'"

Jesus says they will live and be in Christ and He in them... on the day they become born again. There is a part of them that changed in the moment of salvation, allowing them to be taught and understand the mysteries of Heaven. That's the miracle for the disciples and you as well. You received a new inner man, a new you directly from God, from a new species called the children of God. You have the ability now from your inner man to understand the truth that the Holy Spirit delivers to you. This truth was hidden for generations because no one was born of God. The miracle was not that the Holy Spirit was coming as a teacher but that we were instantly given a new nature and a new inner man from God our Father.

Too many Christians are letting time slip away in this life by limiting their relationship with the Holy Ghost to one of miracle worker and guide. They seek spiritual experiences, prophecy, and power from Him but do not allow Him to be their Teacher. He was all those things in the Old Testament, but to us New Testament saints, He can now be our personal Teacher. Right now, you have the ability to hold the truth of God's wisdom within your spiritual man's mind because you are His child. Finally, remember this verse; "For he who speaks in a tongue does not speak to men but to God, for no one understands him; however, in the spirit he speaks mysteries." 1 Corinthians 14:2. As you pray in the Spirit, you are walking out the miracle Jesus promised the disciples.
